 7. Determining Grant Amount
 1. The amount of the Emergency Financial Aid Grants awarded were determined by dividing the total award into quarters, then dividing the quarterly amount by the number of eligible students.
 8. Any instructions, directions, or guidance provided by the institution to students concerning the emergency financial aid grants are as follows:

Dear Student,

The ongoing disruption caused by the COVID-19 global pandemic continues to create enormous challenges for students throughout the country. In response to this ongoing crisis, the federal government has worked quickly to implement the Coronavirus Response and Relief Supplemental Appropriations Act, 2021 (CRRSAA), Pub. L. 116-260 (Dec. 27, 2020), which provides emergency grant funds to eligible students attending institutions of higher learning.

Based on the information you provided on your 2019-2020, 2020-2021 and/or 2021-2022 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), Institute of Technology, Inc. has determined that you are eligible to receive a grant in the amount of $935.00.

Grants have been awarded to eligible students who received a Pell Grant in either the 2019-2020 or 2020-2021 award year. These funds are intended to cover any component of your cost of attendance such as food, transportation, housing, course materials, health care, child care, technology-related expenses, etc. The amount of your award was based on the number of eligible applicants and available funding.

If you have any questions regarding your award, please contact the Financial Aid Office.
